VOL. III. No. 8

AUGUST, 1949

THE Championships on July 15th-16th confirmed what has been repeated continually in these columns over the past eighteen months—that the standard of British athletics is improving steadily.

Just look at the results—five quarter-milers in 49.7, five half-milers in 1:55.4, five milers in 4:14.8, three high jumpers showing 6 ft. 4 in., first three in the weight all over 45 ft., and some sterling individual performances into the bargain. All in far from ideal conditions.

Most pleasing, perhaps, were the performances of athletes who are not yet among our recognised top-liners. These are the likely champions of tomorrow, and in particular we noted R. A. Morley (Southgate) 1:54.3 in the "half," L. Eyre (Harehills) 4:12.8, A. B. Parker (Liverpool University) 4:14.8, and J. Ashby (Westbury H.) 4:16.6 in the mile, A.R. Miles (Thames Valley) 14:37.2 in the three miles, W. Hesketh (Manchester A.C.) 30:19.2 and D. C. Birch (Leeds University) 30:19.4 in the six miles, L. Allen (Sheffield U.H.) 54:31.0 in the walk, G. H. Jarvis (Belgrave H.) 56.7 in the 440 hurdles, J. A. Savidge (R.N. & R.M.) 45 ft. 0½ in. in the weight, A. F. Hignell (Achilles) and J. Swaisland (Poly. H.) in the javelin. These young athletes will be heard a good deal more of in the future and Britain's prospects in the 1952 Olympics are far brighter than many would have thought twelve months ago.

Fartlek

In response to many requests I asked Geoff Dyson to write an article on Fartlek (Speed Play), which is said by many to be largely responsible for the great improvement in Swedish athletics, particularly in middle-distance running. This is largely a matter of opinion, but the fact remains that Fartlek has caught on with coaches and athletes of many nations, and such well-known figures as Wilt (U.S.A.), Reiff (Belgium), Hansenne (France), to quote but a few, have adopted similar ideas in training.

The first of a series of articles on Fartlek will appear in Athletics next month, when our Chief National Coach will discuss it. Following on will be articles by Gosta Holmer, Swedish creator of Fartlek, and Cordner Nelson, Editor of Track and Field News, whose kind co-operation has made this series possible.

Co-operation

Incidentally, Sydney Skilton, journalist member of South London Harriers, has recently made a suggestion which may appeal to other readers of Athletics. He says there must be many readers who have made friends abroad through athletics, and that these friends would undoubtedly welcome a copy of this magazine. He suggests that any such reader should take out a subscription on behalf of the friend abroad, in return for which the friend could arrange for his or her own national athletic publication to be sent here.

Sydney Skilton and Fred Wilt, the U.S.A. distance star, have made such an arrangement, and the idea may well appeal to others. I shall be pleased to give any further details, if required.

Results and Paper

In view of a letter received from a reader just recently, I should like to make it clear that our paper supplies are still restricted and it is not possible to increase the size of the magazine still further.

For some time, however, I have not been at all satisfied with our presentation of results, either in the detail we can give or with the speed with which it is possible to reach our readers. In this connection, I have great hopes that in the near future it will be possible to make a statement regarding policy which should mean a great improvement in this direction. Further details will be given as soon as it is possible to do so.

THE EDITOR

THE EMPIRE GAMES

The Fourth British Empire Games will be held in Auckland, largest city of New Zealand, from February 4th to 11th, 1950. Chairman of the Organising Committee is Rex Moore, President of the Auckland Swimming and Boxing Associations; Deputy Chairman is Alwyn Moon, President of the Auckland A.A.A.; Organising Secretary is C. L. Cleal, well-known sporting journalist and athlete, who resigned his position on the Dominion's leading metropolitan daily newspaper to take up the post.

The Games will be financed by a non-profit company with a capital of £50,000. The track and field athletics will be held at Eden Park, traditional home of Rugby football and cricket in the Dominion. A quarter-mile grass track has been specially prepared and is said to be the fastest in the world.

Generous travelling subsidies have been provided, ranging from £23 6s. 8d. per capita, in the case of Australia, to £100 in the cases of England, Scotland, Wales and Northern Ireland. The countries have until October 31st to nominate their sports and events, and until December 7th to nominate individuals.

The chief executive officer of a large N.Z. business house who has been in England on business has donated £500 towards the cost of sending the English team.

WHAT WOULD YOU LIKE?

With a view to giving regular readers the features they prefer, the Editor invites suggestions or criticisms. Send a P.C. addressed to: The Editor, "Athletics," 9, Clifton Road, Maida Vale, London W.9.

Letters to the Editor are also welcomed and, where possible, those of general interest will be published.

Competitors will be quartered at Ardmore Teachers' Training College, 23 miles south of Auckland, where they will enjoy a high standard of comfort superior to that of most first-class hotels. Nearly all the athletes, including the track and field competitors, will have adequate facilities in the 32 acres of grounds. There are also many other social and recreational facilities, including a theatre.

Situated in an entirely rural district, the College has its own fire station and post office, and every part is linked by telephone. The buildings are all steam-heated and the installations include modern water-filtration and sewage plants.

GORDIEN BREAKS WORLD DISCUS RECORD AT LISBON

A team of ten American athletes landed in Portugal early in July to inaugurate the 1949 chapter of the "Invasion of Europe".

The stars from the States competed in a two-day meet at Lisbon, July 9th and 10th. For the first time in the history of Portuguese athletic activities, local fans had the rare pleasure of witnessing the birth of a new world record when Fortune Gordien, Olympic Club discus thrower, threw the platter 56.46 metres (185 ft. 2¼ in.), thus adding 3 ft. 8½ in. to the official world record held by Adolfo Consolini of Italy since 1948. The American champion achieved this phenomenal feat in his fourth attempt. After a sloppy debut—his first throw was slightly over 152 ft.—Gordien had a terrific series, with a worst throw of almost 175 ft.! Jim Fuchs, American shot-putt champion, who practises discus-throwing merely as a side activity, rose to the occasion with a new personal best—51.02 metres (167 ft. 4¼ in.). The following day Fuchs put the shot 56 ft. 11½ in., turning the tables on Gordien (who did "only" 48 ft. 6½ in. High-jumper John Heintzman cleared the bar at 6 ft. 6½ in. Most of the other Americans annexed their respective events in exhibition-like manner. Only Portuguese winner in the two-day meet was Luis Alcide, who took the hop, step and jump at 45 ft. 1¼ in.

Summary. FIRST DAY—Discus: 1. Gordien (U.S.A.) 185 ft. 2¼ in.; 2. Fuchs 167 ft. 4¼ in. 400 M.: 1. Ault (U.S.A.) 55.1. H.S. & J.: 1. Alcide (Portugal) 45 ft. 1¼ in. (pole-vaulter Richards of U.S.A. placed third at 44 ft. 8½ in.). 800 M.: 1. Whitfield (U.S.A.) 1:55.6. Pole Vault: 1. Richards (U.S.A.) 14 ft. 1¼ in. (javelin-thrower F. Held was second with 11 ft. 5½ in.). 200 M.: 1. Peters (U.S.A.) 21.5; 2. Dixon (U.S.A.) 21.9. 1,500 M.: 1. Twomey (U.S.A.) 3:56.6. 400x300x200x100 M. Relay: 1. U.S.A. (Whitfield, Ault, Peters, Dixon) 1:55.7.

SECOND DAY—110 H.: 1. Dixon (U.S.A.) 14.2. H.J.: 1. Heintzman (U.S.A.) 6 ft. 6½ in. 100 M.: 1. Peters (U.S.A.) 10.8. Shot: 1. Fuchs (U.S.A.) 56 ft. 11½ in.; 2. Field Events next month

Longwood Harriers held their A.G.M. in Huddersfield off June 20th, when Denys Cartwright was elected President to succeed Alf Fearnley, whose resignation was received with regret. W. Quarmby continues as Hon. Secretary.

Hon. Secretary of Tamworth and Dist. A. & C.C. is now — A. J. Greenslade, 4 Moor Lane, Bolehall, Tamworth, Staffs.

Owing to reasons connected with his recent change of address, Freddie Blakmore is unable to contribute his "Race Walking" feature this month. He hopes to resume this popular series next month.

Athletics in Wales

The value of better coaching in the schools is all too apparent by the fact that 22 new records were put up at the Welsh Secondary Schools' Championships at Carmarthen Park on June 11th. All winners were well over standard, and the best of them, the 45 ft. 2½ in. hop, step and jump by J. Frowan, of Caerphilly Sec. School, is comparable with the best in British athletics this season. It was no flash in the pan, as he has been near this in earlier competition this season, and at Carmarthen he also put up a new record of 21 ft. 6½ in. in the long jump. Eleven counties competed, Glamorgan scoring 299 points, Monmouth 200, Denbigh 191½.

This year the West Wales Championships, with an increase in Junior and Youths' events, will be staged at the famous St. Helen's Rugby Ground, Swansea, on August 6th. A new club to apply for affiliation is Skewen A.C., which has grown out of the local Youth Centre.

Fundamentals of High Jumping

By A. R. MALCOLM, A.A.A. National Coach

Some time ago I wrote an article in this magazine on what I called the first phase in High Jumping, i.e. the approach and take-off. I said then that nothing a high jumper does in the air will ever make up for a poor take-off. I still hold that view. The first essential must always be to get up into the air; then, and only then, will he obtain any advantage from a lay-out. Bearing this in mind, I shall now deal with phase two, bar clearance.

Like all other athletic events, high jumping has been studied mechanically. This study has produced various fundamentals which must be applied to enable a jumper to clear a maximum height with a given amount of "spring". These fundamentals, as applied to bar clearance, are bound up, almost entirely, with the centre of gravity (C of G) of the body. This is the point about which the body will balance; it might be called the centre of mass or weight.

It is a fairly well-known fact that when a body, human or not, breaks contact with the ground, the path of its C of G is already determined, i.e. for a given amount of lift, or spring, applied in the same direction each time, the C of G will always traverse the same course whether the body stays in the erect position, lies on its side or for that matter turns a somersault. This is important, because it means that the body's position may be changed in the air without affecting the ultimate height which the C of G will reach.

The C of G of the human being, when standing normally, is approximately in the middle of the body, level with the top of the hips. This position, of course, is not constant. Any movement up, down or sideways of any part of the body will affect this position. Whilst in contact with the ground, the change in position does not affect the whole body unless the change is sufficient to cause loss of balance. But in the air it has a slightly different effect. It has already been stated that when the body leaves the ground the path of its C of G is predetermined. Therefore if some part of the body should be lowered in relation to the C of G something else must happen. The C of G must continue on its own path, but the lowering of part of the body wants to alter that path. Therefore, if the C of G is continued on its way correctly some other part of the body must automatically be raised in relation to the C of G. There is no conscious effort to make this happen: it just does occur and it cannot be prevented. How does that apply to high jumping? It means, generally, that if heavy parts of the body can be dropped, then other parts must go up, i.e. head and shoulders should be lowered. Also it means that, if smaller limbs can be lowered farther still, the farther the better, preferably when they have crossed the bar, then still more lift will be given to other parts.

I have stated that the compensatory movement is automatic: that means we cannot control it. That is true to a certain extent. We cannot control exactly which parts go up, but we can control to a very large extent which parts do not go up. For example, if one arm is lowered towards the pit, the advantage which should have been gained will be lost entirely if the other arm is allowed to go vertically upwards. Therefore, by controlling the "upward" arm and keeping it down also, some other part of the body has to go up.

BEST POSITION

Bearing these points in mind, what general position of the body gives the soundest position mechanically? First of all, there is the well-known scissors position of sitting over the bar. In this position, the nearest the bar can get to the C of G is approximately 12 inches. Secondly, the bar can be crossed so that the body is lying parallel to the ground on its side (i.e. one hip on top of the other). In this position the bar can get to within seven inches of the C of G, some considerable improvement. Third, the body can still be parallel with the ground, but this time facing it. In such a position the bar can get to within 4½ inches of the C of G—better still. These are only general positions, but the advantages of the second and third are obvious over the first. That is not the full advantage, for the whole of the body need not cross at once. In that case, when any part of the body has crossed the bar, it should be dropped towards the pit. Then the remainder of the body should be controlled so that the parts of the body over the bar, or still to cross, are automatically raised. Therefore any extra advantage will depend on how much weight and how far down one can get it. But remember that this must be done before the difficult part of the body, i.e. the hips, has crossed the bar.

Those are the main underlying factors of bar clearance. Modern high jumping fits into these remarks as follows: The second position corresponds roughly with the eastern cut-off and western roll; the third with the straddle and back layout; they are only approximations.

I do not propose in this article to deal with the details of technique. But how are we to set about choosing which style to use? Here are some points which will help. The eastern cut-off requires a considerable degree of suppleness and mobility, especially in the hip joint; a great deal of speed is required to enable the jumper to get into his layout before his hips cross the bar; on the other hand the approach is almost the same as the scissors. The back layout has the same advantage as the previous one, but the disadvantage is that it is very difficult, almost impossible, to get a "comfortable" landing when a good layout is obtained. The straddle requires an approach from the "opposite" side; the difficulty is, usually, the inability to obtain a satisfactory take-off with the large amount of turn required in the air. The western roll also requires an approach from the "other" side; no great degree of suppleness is necessary and it is comparatively easy to obtain an efficient take-off; it is easy to learn. From this you can gather that the western roll is the easiest and safest to tackle. It has another advantage. After a season of tackling the western roll, it will be far easier to obtain a satisfactory take-off for the straddle.

One final point. If, when coaching an athlete, the fundamentals of the event are borne in mind, then the spotting of errors or the improvement of technique becomes far easier.

Three Icelandic clubs have just completed tours in other countries. I.R. visited Scotland and N. Ireland, where H. Clausen did 9.8 for 100 yards and J. Sigurdsson 205ft. 1½in. in the Javelin. Armann went to Finland, where G. Larsson won practically all his sprint races, best being 10.8 for 100 metres. K.R. toured Norway, G. Huseby winning all his shot events, setting up four new Icelandic records and one Scandinavian record—53ft. 10in.

Weight Training

A series of experiments are being carried out by the Coaching Committee of the A.A.A. in collaboration with the British Amateur Weight Lifters' Association to ascertain the effects of weight training when used as part of an athlete's training programme. It is desired to collect all possible data on this subject, and it is believed that there are a number of athletes in Great Britain who have used, or are using, weight training independently of these experiments. It would be most helpful if such individuals would forward information about the type and extent of such weight training together with any noticeable effect on their athletic ability, and any general comments. Such information should be sent as soon as possible to the A.A.A. Honorary Special Coaching Organiser, D. N. J. Cullum, c/o A.A.A. Offices.

Series of Eleven Talks on "Modern Athletics" by the Chief Coach will be held at Archbishop Tenison's Grammar School, Kennington Oval, S.E.11 (near Oval Station).

A.A.A. SUMMER SCHOOL

Loughborough, August 15th-27th

Interest in athletics has never been so high, and all vacancies were filled as far back as the beginning of May. The Association is again running two courses. Course "A" will be an introduction to the teaching and coaching of athletics in schools and clubs, Course "B" will be for coaches, teachers and Service instructors already in possession of considerable coaching experience.

Course "A". Approximately 100 students will attend. Four one-hour periods will be devoted to each of the ten events covered during the fortnight; the first two will deal with the fundamentals of technique, and the third and fourth will be used to teach the technique of the event.

Course "B". There will be 35 students on this course, and a fairly high standard of coaching knowledge and experience is pre-supposed. Junior champions in Discus, Shot, Pole Vault, High Jump, Sprinting, Hurdling and Middle Distance running will be available for demonstration purposes and loop films will also be available for all periods. Included in the coaching and lecturing personnel are S. Cufflin (massage), A. McTaggart (tracks and grounds), H. B. Sear (diet), R. B. Brookes (injuries), Prof. A. Hemingway (physiology), P. McIntosh (skills), as well as the National and some Senior Hon. Coaches.

It is hoped to expand Course "B" in future years, and it is likely that courses in the areas will eventually take the place of the present Course "A".

WHITE CITY JULY 15th - 16th

THE FLAT EVENTS

Though the first day was fine, the second was one of thunderstorms and heavy rain, flooding the track and making conditions difficult for competitors and officials alike.

Strangely enough, the downpours did not seem to make the track slow. If it did, the performances were indeed phenomenal.

After two "breaks" the 100 Yards saw Bailey equalling the best championship performance with 9.7, to win from Laing and Archer in a really good race.

The 220 Yards was an easy win for Bailey, who was soon out on his own, Laing coming through strongly to take second place again, this time by inches from Jones.

In the 440 Yards Les Lewis of Walton was expected to score, and probably would have done but for leaving his effort too late. Drawn in the badly cut-up inside lane, Lewis was last at the top of the back straight and, though fast overhauling the leaders, was unable to develop his usual devastating finish as easily or as quickly as faster conditions would allow. The time surprised many, and all six finished in 49.7.

The 880 Yards provided a thrilling finish, Parlett just getting home on the tape, when White had seemed an assured winner. Parlett again proved that his tactical abilities do not match his physical powers, being last some 15 yards behind the leaders after 150 yards had gone, though drawn in lane 1, and only scraping home in a desperate finish, with White apparently caught unaware of impending danger. Morley ran extremely well to get a close-up third.

Undoubtedly the Mile was the highlight of the meeting, Eyre leading for most of the way until the bell, when Morris dashed into the lead. Nankeville immediately challenged and we had visions of a repeat performance of the Southern Championship. But the Walton runner showed no sign of faltering this time and, running powerfully, gradually increased his lead over the last 300 yards to win in a new championship best of 4:8.8, Morris holding Eyre off for second place. Six British milers in 4:16.6 shows what improvement is being made.

The 3 Miles went, as expected, to John Joe Barry of Eire, but Chivers moved up in the later stages to be beaten by a mere 1.6 sec. at the finish. The 6 Miles was a really great race, with the four leaders locked together after Smart had been dropped at 4½ miles. At the bell all four were still there, and when Cox went away along the back straight and was 10 yards up round the last bend, it looked all over. But Lillikas, the Estonian Poly. Harrier, put in a terrific burst down the straight which Cox could not withstand. There was talk of a protest, but, if made, it was not upheld.

If the Steeplechase brought nothing sensational, it did give us a new champion in F. Holt, the Liverpool Harrier who had previously won the Inter-County race. D. G. Ross (S.L.H.) ran well and proved that his venture into steeplechasing was worth while.

One felt sorry for the walkers in the 7 Miles Walk, who went round lap after lap on what resembled a duckpond more than a track. It was the same medicine—Churcher and Morris, with Allen of Sheffield taking third place.

The hurdlers were not much better off for conditions, and in both 120 Yards and 440 Yards it was a case of water, water everywhere. In the shorter event Finlay proved what a grand master of the event he is by winning on his own in 14.6, only .2 sec outside his record of 1938. Harry Whittle was an easy victor in the longer race, Ede recovering some of his form to take second place.

The Tug-of-War showed us that Wimpey are still the champions and they won both events by 2 pulls to 0.

THE FIELD EVENTS

By J. W. Ll. Alford, B.A.

National Coach to Wales

The heavy rain which fell soon after the beginning of the Championships, besides making conditions difficult for the competitors, also played havoc with the timing of the Field Events, so that, with three events going on at the same time at one period, I was unable to observe each event as closely and carefully as I would have liked.

The Discus Throw, however, was held on its own, and with the aid of the scoreboard could be easily followed by every spectator. The weather must have made accurate footwork very difficult—I noticed that Brewer, whose 136 ft. 6½ in. was over a foot less than his throw for second place last year, and considerably less than his best for this year, was finding a lot of trouble with the surface of the circle. In most of his throws he seemed off balance with his trunk bent forward from the hips.

Klicks of Hungary, who took fifth place in this event in the Olympic Games last year, settled down after his first throw and improved steadily. Technically he seemed to me to be far superior to the other competitors, showing smooth control and acceleration in his turn and an uninterrupted transition into his delivery.

Clancy, who took second place with a throw 5 ft. 3 $\frac{1}{2}$ in. better than his winning throw last year, lost a lot of speed through hopping high in the air in the middle of his turn and also appeared to allow the left side of his body to fall away during the delivery.

Jankovskis undercut every throw I watched except his last, and there was a distinct pause between the end of his turn, which was very jerky, and his delivery.

The general standard was a slight improvement on last year, but it may be noted the winner was the only competitor to throw over the Olympic qualifying distance of 150 ft. 11 in.

The Weight competition also showed a slight improvement in the general standard, and it was encouraging to see a newcomer in Savidge of the R.N. Club taking third place with a putt of slightly over 45 ft. and Giles improving by 9 $\frac{1}{2}$ in. on his last year's performance to take first place. I did not have a good view of this event, but it seemed to me that both Giles and Savidge were technically orthodox, while Moody appeared to be using great speed in his glide, so much so, in fact, that he failed to pass smoothly and without pause into his delivery and I was often left in doubt whether he had not putt the shot with both feet off the ground.

Guiney was very much below his last year's form and, like Byrne, was prone to exaggerated and inefficient turnings of the trunk during the glide and delivery.

I managed to catch very little of the Javelin, but I did notice that Dalrymple used a fairly fast approach but checked his speed perceptibly prior to his cross-step. The Midland competitor Garner, using an under-arm carry, had little other than a standing throw but obviously has a great deal of natural ability. Again it was encouraging to see a youngster like Swaisland occupying fourth place with a throw of 171 ft. 5 in.

The Hammer Throw turned out as expected, except perhaps for the disappointing showing of the British competitors. Nemeth again gave us his fine exposition of the German technique in which the turns through 180 degrees are taken from heel to ball of the foot and the hammer head is followed rather than trailed. His consistency is shown by the fact that in 1948 he took part in 26 competitions and was only once beaten and only once threw less than 177 ft.

The High Jump was an event where, it seemed to me, Britain has taken a significant step forward, with eight competitors clearing the qualifying height of 6 ft. and the first four jumping higher than the Olympic qualifying height of 6 ft. 1 $\frac{1}{2}$ in. It was a great pity that the competition was interrupted by a heavy downfall of rain just after Paterson, Pavitt and Wells had cleared 6 ft. 4 in., with the first two, at least, looking as though they would go higher still.

We certainly haven't seen the best of young Wells yet. Only a few days ago I saw him in Wales jumping 6 ft. 2 in with a scissors. On Saturday he used a type of Western Roll for his earlier jumps and then a straddle at 6 ft. 2 in., 6 ft. 3 in. and 6 ft. 4 in., neither of which, at the moment, apparently are giving him much help. The main fault of his straddle was a premature hollowing of the back which very obviously forced his hips down on to the bar.

Paterson, in his efforts up to 6 ft. 4 in., seemed to be jumping very well in his style of Western Roll with the head and shoulders coming down quickly and his back slightly turned to the bar as he crossed it. The take-off must have been in a bad state after the heavy downpour, in which apparently Paterson's track suit was soaked, for he left it off in between his last few efforts and seemed to jump without much enthusiasm.

Pavitt used his "flat" type of straddle, but appeared to me to be getting his head and shoulders down more quickly once they had crossed the bar than he has done previously when I have watched him.

Atherton and Prince Adedoyin both used forms of straddle, the former's looking to me to be much the more efficient in that he managed to keep much more of his weight down to somewhere near bar level.

The Pole Vault was won by an American, Harwood, who has vaulted 13 ft. 6 in. in indoor competition. Apart from dropping his pole to a very low position very early in his run he was conventional in his technique but not very impressive, appearing to gain his height mostly from a smooth plant and good hang and swing. Homonnay of Hungary, who took second place but vaulted the same height of 12 ft. 6 in., checked his speed visibly in his approach, but in his best vaults too showed a smooth plant and good swing.

Anderson appeared with one of his vaults to clear 12 ft. 6 in., but failed with his clearance. His push-up was for the most part still in a horizontal rather than a vertical direction, but he showed a well-controlled run-up, a smooth plant and well-balanced hang and swing in his better vaults.

Gregor, too, failed to get any foot elevation in his vaults, while Redpath was unorthodox, to say the least, with a crab-like approach and crossing the bar mostly with his back turned towards it.

The other Hungarian, Vorster, carried his pole very high indeed and swung around it on take-off, so that most of his vaults were well off balance.

I had a poor view of the Long Jump, but from what I could see of it all five competitors used a hitch kick of a sort, the main fault of which seemed to be insufficient movement of the thighs from the hips (most of the movement was taking place in front of the hips) and faulty timing of the hitch kick, so that it finished far too soon, and incomplete arm action. Whittle, I noticed, used 22 strides on his approach and seemed to check half-way in the run-up. His landing appeared to derive little benefit from his hitch kick and he did not finish off the arm action by sweeping them forward to pull his body over the fulcrum of his feet—as he had already dropped his feet prior to landing he obviously found no necessity to do so.

FINNISH SAUNA BATH AT AYLESFORD

Last year a team from Aylesford Paper Mills visited Finland and were introduced by their hosts to the traditional Finnish bath, the Sauna. It was so much appreciated that when the Finns returned the visit this summer, bringing with them the Sauna used by the Finnish Olympic team, they were approached by Aylesford officials with a view to obtaining one for their athletes.

The Finns then presented their Sauna to Colonel Sheldon, the Aylesford and Kent A.A.A. President, to commemorate their visit, and it was erected at New Hythe and officially opened by the Finnish Minister on June 18th.

Doug Wilson and several other well-known athletes have already used the bath, and many others are expected to do so in the future.

Hon. Sec: MRS. W. E. HUGHES, 13, Selcroft Road, Purley, Surrey (Uplands 1566).

The Championships

The National Championships brought a record entry of 197 and, though we could have wished for more spectators, the performances were very good indeed. Particularly pleasing were the new records by Spartan in the Relay and Mrs. Shergold (Bevis Reid) in the Shot.

International Match

The team for the International Match against France and Netherlands at the White City on August 20th will be selected after going to press, but it is certain that the team will be a strong one, probably the strongest ever. Also on the programme are: Pentathlon Championship, 1,000 Metres and 1,600 Metres Walk.

Tickets, numbered and reserved, can be booked in advance at the White City Stadium and the usual Ticket Agencies at 7/6, 5/- and 3/6. Admittance through the turnstiles will be 2/6, all under cover.

Rule Book

The Rule Book can be obtained from either Mrs. Hughes or Mrs. Palmer at 2/6 (2/9 post free). Every athlete and official should have one.

Forthcoming Events

- Aug. 20 International Match, White City.
 Aug. 27 Inter-County Match, Hove Stadium.
 Sept. 10 Kent Championships, Charlton Park.

Kent A.C. (Ladies Section)

Kent Athletic Club have formed a Ladies Section with headquarters at Ladywell Recreation Ground, Catford, S.E.6. Training sessions are held every Tuesday and Thursday evenings and on Sunday mornings. Members in all sections will be welcomed and further details can be obtained from the Hon. Secretary, Miss K. Croucher, 27 Otford Crescent, S.E.4.
